There are million dollar homes with tons of newspapers, so hoarding is a problem for all. Some are successful people outside their homes. Compulsive hoarding is a mental disorder. Because of media hoarding is main streamed. Does not refer to a Harding person as hoarder, no labels. Most client experience depression and are going thru many psychological problem. Never assume they don't need their items by discarding it. Do not clear out anyone's belongings without asking them. Has a lot of excuses for clutter. Common things: paper, cardboard box, clothing and shoes. Once it goes public the person is humiliated.
