Nneka Uzodinma (<http://www.marshalldennehey.com/attorneys/nneka-b-uzodinma>)

Nneka Uzodinma is an associate practicing in the firm's Casualty Department. She devotes a considerable portion of her practice to general PIP litigation and insurance coverage matters. Nneka also continues to develop her skills litigating and investigating claims of insurance fraud as a member of the Special Investigations Unit (SIU) practice group.

Prior to joining Marshall Dennehey, Nneka was an attorney with the Miami office of GEICO General Insurance Company, where she served as a trial attorney. While in this role, she handled hundreds of personal injury protection and special project cases.

Nneka spent more than five years with the Miami-Dade State Attorney's Office before joining GEICO, prosecuting misdemeanor, juvenile and felony offenses ranging from Criminal RICO investigations to Violent Career Criminal offender prosecutions. She was later promoted to the Insurance Fraud Unit of the Organized Crime Division where she focused on the prosecution of complex insurance and general fraud cases, working closely with the Florida Division of Insurance Fraud and other State and Federal law enforcement agencies.

Nneka is admitted to practice in the state of Florida.
